

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

FOR

STATION: KLUC 98.5 FM

2nd QUARTER, 2014
(April 1st through June 30th, 2014)

Prepared by:

---

Sandee Bonita Madrid
KLUC-FM
CBS Radio Las Vegas
June 30th, 2014

Issues of Concern to Las Vegas, NV
Addressed in Responsive Programming in the 2nd Quarter, 2014

	Subject:	Description of Issue of Concern
1	Dress For Success	Providing work readiness services and professional attire to women in need.
2	KEEN and Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department	A program by the LVMP to team up with the community by keeping everyone's eyes on the neighborhood.
3	Rape Crisis Center	Awareness on safety and services offered to victims of any sort of abuse.
4	Susan G Komen 5K Fun Walk	Fun walk benefiting the services and programs provided by Susan G Komen of Southern Nevada
5	Colors Of Lupus	Honoring Lupus Awareness month by providing facts, services, and discussing upcoming events
6	Goodwill Of Southern Nevada	Funding work readiness programs and services for individuals in need of employment.
7	Project 21	A passion and charity project by a local fashion designer of donating profits to charities.
8	National Nurse's Week and Health Forum	Local Doctors discussed the importance of nurses and holding an open health forum to discuss Southern Nevada Health Care.
9	ARTrageous and The Center of Las Vegas	Events, programs and services offered for the LGBT community of Las Vegas.
10	Catholic Charities	Programs, services, and shelter provided to members of the community in desperate need of help.
11	Safe Nest	Providing a comprehensive approach to working with families to stop abuse in the family environment.
12	Legal Aid	Legal support and services provided for low income individuals.
13	The Arthritis Foundation	Programs and events to benefit individuals with arthritis.

KLUC Programs That Address Community Issues
(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)
2nd Quarter, 2014

Public Affairs Program	Schedule and Description
1. 98.5 KLUC's Community Access	Sundays, 7:00 a.m.-7:30 a.m. Weekly interview with local non-profit organizations highlighting events and services offered to our community.
2. Local News and Review	Sundays, 7:30 a.m.-8:00 a.m. Weekly local news review produced by Tate South focusing on community events, national news and interviews with newsmakers.
3. Local Traffic Reports	Monday-Friday, twice per hour between 6:00 a.m.-9:00 a.m. and again from 3:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m. One minute reports updating the latest local traffic conditions.

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
2nd Quarter, 2014 (April 1st through June 30th)

Issue: Dress for Success

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, April 6th, 2013

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Paula Lawrence, Executive Director of Dress for Success of Southern Nevada joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. Dress for Success is a non-profit organization that promotes the economic independence of disadvantaged women by providing professional attire, support, and career development tools to help them thrive in work and life. They discussed in detail how the organization works, the process of setting up a referral and appointment to obtain clothing, and shared success stories. They also discussed Dress for Success' annual "Derby Rose Champagne Luncheon & Fashion Show" to benefit the organization and its mission purpose. Because Dress for Success is a non-profit organization, professional attire and donations are always happily welcomed.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, April 6th 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

Law enforcement agencies across the state are cracking down on distracted drivers this month. A state law banning the use of hand held cell phones and other electronic devices while driving has been in effect for more than two years. To learn more, News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Nevada Highway Patrol Trooper Jeremie Elliott.

Children of color face more obstacles when it comes to social and economic opportunity in Nevada. That's according to a new report from the non-profit Annie E. Casey Foundation. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with the group's Laura Speer for a closer look.

Studies show we are reading fewer books these days. To encourage reading, two student clubs at the College of Southern Nevada will be giving away thousands of books as part of Family Literacy Day this Saturday. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Professor Pattie Thomas to find out more.

Issue: KEEN and Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, April 13th, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Sam Diaz and Carmen Terado, both Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Officers joined Sandee Bonitas Madrid this week. Officers Diaz and Terado focus on community area policing and have teamed up with local high school students and members of the community for a program titled 'Keen: Keeping Everyone's Eyes on the Neighborhood.' They discussed the importance of open communication between police officials and its community members. Officers Diaz and Terado shared the mission of KEEN which is to help people not be scared of contacting officers for matters that can help keep the neighborhood safe. They also talked about the annual 'KEEN Fair' which is an event for families to meet local police officers and other members of the community.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, April 13th, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

Local high school students have the opportunity to learn about state government while actually participating in it. Applications are being accepted for the Nevada Youth Legislature. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Nevada's Secretary of the Senate, David Byerman to find out more.

Tuesday is April 15th, the deadline to file your Federal income tax return. News in Review correspondent Dayna Roselli spoke with Las Vegas tax expert Al Wagner for some last minute tips.

It's spring break for Clark County school kids. If you're looking for ideas to entertain, educate, and—most of all—keep them busy, consider a visit to the Discovery Children's Museum. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Carrie Carter-Henderson to learn more.

The Greater Las Vegas Association of Realtors is out with their latest look at the local housing market. News in Review correspondent Dayna Roselli spoke with GLVAR president Heidi Kasama.

Issue: Rape Crisis Center

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, April 20th, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Daniele Dreitzer, Executive Director of the Rape Crisis Center of Las Vegas joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. The Rape Crisis Center of Las Vegas is a local non-profit organization that provides programs and services to those who have been victims of rape or any sort of abuse. They provide community outreach programs to reach out to those victims who because of fear or certain life situations have not received any counseling to overcome such traumatic experience. They shared safety tips for young adults and discussed what to do in case of an emergency. They also discussed what the requirements are to become a volunteer or advocate for this organization. Rape Crisis Center of Las Vegas always welcomes donations and reminds the community of Las Vegas that there is a trained representative to answer their hotline 24 hours a day.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, April 20th, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

This week, Clark County School District superintendent Pat Skorkowsky spoke before the Clark County Board of Commissioners to deliver his annual State of the District address. Here are the superintendent's comments.

A government watchdog group has just published the salaries of more than 28,000 state and local government employees. TransparentNevada.com has been doing this each year since 2008. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with the Nevada Policy Research Institute's executive vice president Victor Joecks to find out why.

April is National Donate Life Month. To find out more about organ and tissue donation, and why it's so important, News in Review correspondents Dayna Roselli and Joe Gillespie spoke with Kate McCullough of the Nevada Donor Network.

Groundbreaking has been announced for a new stadium located adjacent to New York, New York. For a look at that and other issues related to gaming and tourism, News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with the director of UNLV's Center for Gaming Research, Dave Schwartz.

The City of Las Vegas has voted to allow horse drawn carriages to operate in downtown. To talk about this and other issues affecting downtown, News in Review correspondents Dayna Roselli and Joe Gillespie spoke with Las Vegas Sun writer Joe Schoenmann.

Issue: Susan G Komen of Southern Nevada

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, April 27th, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Stephanie Kurby, Executive Director of the Susan G Komen Southern Nevada joined Sandee Bonita this week. The Susan G Komen Southern Nevada is a local nonprofit organization that hosts "Race For The Cure," a breast cancer awareness race/walk for those that are dealing or have dealt with breast cancer. This local affiliate helps survivors in picking up their life and by offering services and support for their families. Since Breast Cancer Awareness is always one of this organization since it is something deadly that needs be taken serious, Stephanie discussed the importance of getting mammograms and urge people to get exams. Also mentioned were the many ways that individuals can help this organization by volunteering their time or with monetary donations.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, April 27th, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

MGM Resorts International announced this week that one of the largest music festivals in the world will be coming to Las Vegas. Rock in Rio has been entertaining crowds since 1985. Shows have been in Rio de Janeiro, Lisbon, and Madrid. MGM is planning to build an outdoor concert venue on 33 acres along Las Vegas Boulevard to host Rock in Rio and other music festivals. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Chris Baldizan, Vice-President of Entertainment with MGM to find out more.

Clark County Schools have dealt with a number of troubling issues lately; including charges that some employees misappropriated funds, while others changed test answers so students would score higher. During his recent State of the District address, Superintendent Pat Skorkowsky focused on goals for the future. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with the Superintendent following his address.

One of the largest fundraising events in Las Vegas is also one of the oldest. The Elk's Club's Helldorado Days are next month. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Esther Carter and Lee Butts to get more information.

Since 1978, The Animal Foundation has been Las Vegas' largest open-admission animal shelter and adoption in center. One of their most popular events is happening today. It's called "Best in Show." News in review correspondents Dayna Roselli and Joe Gillespie spoke with The Animal Foundation's Megan Scheibe to get details

Issue: Colors of Lupus Southern Nevada

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, May 4th, 2014

Time: 7:30 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Julie Gibbs, Director of Membership Services of The Colors of Lupus of Nevada joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. The Colors of Lupus of Nevada is local non-profit organization that provides accurate and current information on lupus and its effects. They discussed the many services that The Colors of Lupus of Nevada offers such as: access to medical professionals to provide medical care at discounted fees to patients who are uninsured or have limited coverage, provide referral listing as well as inform and introduce alternative treatments to alleviate the symptoms of lupus. Also discussed was their "Phone Buddy" system for members with lupus and the meaningful and informational workshops offered to help patients and their families with the coping and acceptance of living with lupus. Because The Colors of Lupus of Nevada is a non-profit organization, it relies on volunteer help and monetary donations

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, May 4th 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

The Nevada Gaming Control Board reported this week that March was a good month for Las Vegas casinos. Their take was up more than seven-and-a-half percent, compared to the same month last year. For more details, News in Review correspondents Dayna Roselli and Joe Gillespie spoke with the director of UNLV's Center for Gaming Research, Dave Schwartz.

Do you ever wish you were a happier person? The author of "Find Happiness Now" says you can be, and it's easier than you might imagine. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Jonathan Robinson to learn more.

Las Vegas home prices continue to rise. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with Craig Lazara for a look at the latest Case-Schiller home price report.

A local high school has been chosen to participate in this year's Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. A music festival, featuring many Las Vegas performers, is being held this afternoon as a fundraiser. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Linda Freeman to get more information.

As we wrap up this week's show, a reminder: Aid for AIDS of Southern Nevada or AFAN is holding their annual AIDS Walk Las Vegas this morning. The money raised supports services designed to stabilize and empower people living with or affected by HIV. Last year more than 12 thousand people walked. Penn & Teller are Grand Marshalls. Registration is 8-9am and the walk begins at 10:30. If you can't walk, you can still make a contribution at AFANLV.org

Issue: Goodwill of Southern Nevada
Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access
Date: Sunday, May 11th, 2014
Time: 7:00 am
Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Kathy Topp, a member of Goodwill of Southern Nevada joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. Goodwill of Southern Nevada is nationally known for its thrift stores, yet this organization is a non-profit whose mission is to help individuals obtain employment no matter their circumstance or disability. They discussed all the programs available at local Goodwill's and discussed their work readiness program. This program is completely free to members of the Las Vegas community, in which a resource center is provided to help individuals search for employment. Counselors are on deck at the resource center to guide these individuals on resume building skills as how to achieve a successful employment interview. They also discussed the other various programs offered at Goodwill Facilities and shared of where each dollar gained at their thrift stores is distributed. Lastly they discussed Goodwill's "Blue Party," which is an event to benefit exclusively the work readiness programs and maintain its success.

Issue: Local News
Show: Las Vegas News in Review
Date: Sunday, May 11th, 2014
Time: 7:30 a.m.
Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

Metro recently changed its policy on collision responses, and no longer go to accident scenes in which there is no injury or questions of impairment. Both the Nevada Highway Patrol and Las Vegas police report some drivers are being approached by scammers who are often seeking personal information, possibly to use in filing false accident reports. News in Review correspondent Chuck Meyer spoke with Metro officer Jesse Roybal to find out more.

One of the oldest community events in Las Vegas returns this week. Helldorado Days is sponsored by the Elks club, and raises funds for local charities. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Esther Carter and Lee Butts for more details. The Clark County School District's anti-bullying task force presented recommendations for ways teachers and administrators can improve their response to bullying. The task force was created by Superintendent Pat Skorkowsky in reaction to a grieving father who demanded action after his daughter's suicide earlier this school year. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with CCSD board trustee Stavan Corbett to find out more.

This past week, a man on a bike took to the streets of Las Vegas in an experiment to test how safe homes, businesses, and even people on mobile phones are from cyber criminals. His results are startling. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with security expert James Lyne for details.

Issue: The Center Las Vegas
Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access
Date: Sunday, May 18th, 2014
Time: 7:00 am
Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Ted Vice, local designer and founder of Learned Vices joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. Ted Vice was raised in Las Vegas and has taken the city as inspiration to launch his clothing and hat line. He discussed the importance of staying in touch with the community and embracing what the city has to offer. Vice's mother has been a blackjack dealer for over 20 years, and because of that he was inspired to launch "Project 21." This specific passion project seeks local organizations in need, features them, and 21% of all sales for the month go to help different organizations every single month. They discussed the impact these organizations have on the community of Las Vegas and the importance of supporting the many different services and programs they are able to offer. Local organizations are welcomed and encouraged to submit their information to be a part of "Project 21."

Issue: Local News
Show: Las Vegas News in Review
Date: Sunday, May 18th, 2014
Time: 7:30 a.m.
Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

The Clark County School District not only has to hire 2,000 teachers for the next school year, now it has to fill 95 more positions on top of that. The School Board approved the firing of close to 100 teachers and administrators who received unsatisfactory reviews, two years in a row. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with CCSD's chief of student achievement Dr. Mike Barton.

For the first time this year, we've had temperatures over 100 degrees. With more of us heading to the pools and wearing fewer clothes, there's a mad dash to shed a few pounds. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Dr. Chris Mohr for some advice.

Construction is continuing on a project that sat idle for a few years. A retail and shopping project called "Downtown Summerlin" is expecting to open in October near Red Rock Casino. This week, News in Review correspondents Dayna Roselli and Joe Gillespie put on their hard hats for a tour. The next day, they spoke with the project's general manager Andy Ciarrocchi.

A non-profit group is working to help at-risk and low income kids stay in school and graduate. This week, "Communities in Schools" announced that their success rate is improving and they plan to help even more kids in the coming year. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Susie Lee to find out more.

Issue: National Nurse's Week and Health Forum

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, May 25th, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Catherine D'Amico, Professor and Associate Dean, Dr. Mable Smith, Dean of Nursing, and David Allen, Director of Community and Corporate Relations, for Roseman University joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. They discussed the many programs available at Roseman University for those individuals interested in the medical field. Most importantly they discussed the upcoming Health Forum which is designed to help members of the Las Vegas community get to know local doctors and services available. The forum's goal is to have an open communication of medical treatments available locally and bring light on any health care issues individuals may have questions about. Roseman University welcome individuals to reach out if interested in the medical field.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, May 25th, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

Many people in Las Vegas have kicked the smoking habit by switching to electronic cigarettes. While they're generally thought to be safer, some people maintain there's not enough information to be sure. As the number of people using them increases, so do the number regulations that are being sought. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with the Director of the FDA's Center for Tobacco Products, Mitch Zeller.

Junior Achievement has a long history of helping youth in our area develop life skills. To help fund their efforts, they're holding their annual poker tournament on June 1st. To learn more about the organization and preview the fundraiser, News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with the president of Junior Achievement of Southern Nevada Alan Diskin.

Transportation is vital to support our number one industry tourism. Southwest Airlines has announced some changes to make travel a little easier. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with airline spokesperson Michelle Agnew to get details.

Since 1978, The Animal Foundation (formerly Lied Animal Shelter) has been Las Vegas' largest open-admission animal shelter and pet adoption center. This week they announced the shelter had reached a level of capacity not seen in almost two years. There asking anyone interested in adopting a dog to come down and help them reduce the population. News in Review correspondent Tate South got in touch with their spokesperson Meghan Schiebe to learn more.

Tomorrow is Memorial Day, when we honor the men and women who died serving our country in the armed forces. Later today, an event is being held at Lake Las Vegas to support the Veteran's Care Foundation. On Friday, News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with Jim Lyttner to get more details.

Issue: ARTrageous and The Center Las Vegas

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, June 1st, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Hektor Esparza and Mel Goodwin who is the Executive Director of The Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Southern Nevada joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. The Center LV is a community-based organization that supports and promotes activities directed at furthering the well-being, positive image, and human rights of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer community, its allies, and low to moderate income residents in Southern Nevada. They discussed the organization's new location and the new services that can be offered because of the bigger space. They also talked about their annual "ARTrageous" event that features art and celebration in order to obtain funds to benefit the organization's programs and services. Some of those services include: social, support, youth, and health and wellness, groups.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, June 1st, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

Statewide, casino revenue from gaming in April remained virtually flat compared to a year ago. But a monthly report from the Nevada Gaming Control Board showed better news for the Las Vegas Strip. News in Review correspondents Dayna Roselli and Joe Gillespie spoke with Dave Schwartz, Director of UNLV's Center for Gaming Research for an analysis.

As you just heard, the popularity of casino table games seems to be increasing. But slot machines are still a favorite with many players. To find out what keeps players coming back, News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Dr. David Forrest.

Golden Rainbow is a grass roots organization, founded in 1987 by members of the entertainment industry who saw the need to provide housing for people with HIV/AIDS when one of their own was forced to live and die in a garage. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with the new Executive Director of Golden Rainbow, Gary Costa.

This week, we learned a good bit more about visitors to Las Vegas. The Convention and Visitor's Authority released more information of their 2013 visitor survey. News in Review correspondent s Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli get details from LVCVA spokesperson Heidi Hayes.

A new report ranks Las Vegas 37th in the nation when it comes to our city parks. Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with Peter Harnik with the Trust for Public Lands.

Issue: Catholic Charities

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, June 8th, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Ellen Ramirez, a member of the Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada is a local non-profit organization that has been serving Las Vegas since 1941. As one of the oldest charities in the city, Catholic Charities has been helping the community by offering human and social services to those in need. Such services include providing food, shelter, and helping out senior citizens. They discussed the "Homeless 2 Home" program that is designed to help individuals who are currently living in the streets to gain their independence back, with work readiness programs, shelter opportunities, in works of getting their own place. Because this organization is a non-profit, volunteers are always welcomed and monetary donations are very much appreciated.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, June 8th, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

Changes are coming to downtown, specifically the Fremont Street Experience. Following a number of complaints, the Las Vegas City Council is taking steps to make the area safer and more inviting to visitors. Mayor Carolyn Goodman and Clark County Sheriff Doug Gillespie held a news conference this week to discuss the changes. Here's what they had to say.

A local high school student has come up with a project to help at risk kids in the community. Faith Lutheran Middle School and High School is holding a special community day to support the project. To find out more, News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with the school's CEO Dr. Steve Buuck.

A heat wave is hitting the valley this weekend, prompting the National Weather Service to issue an extreme heat warning. But the higher temperatures are not only dangerous; they provide a perfect breeding ground for mosquitoes, which can carry the potentially serious West Nile Virus. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Vivek Raman with the Southern Nevada Health District to learn more about how to stay safe.

Issue: Safenest

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, June 15th, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Lisa Len-Chapman, Director of Community Relations for Safe Nest joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. Safe Nest was established in 1977 in the Las Vegas Valley to provide shelter, counseling, advocacy, and prevention to victims of domestic violence. One of the main goals this non-profit discussed was their mission to assist families from crisis to healing, while empowering victims toward self-sufficiency in violence-free lives. They also discussed the services provided for victims, batterers and their children. Safe Nest also provided special prevention programs focused on children, teens, and young adults. Besides the programs, this non-profit provided shocking statistics and how individuals can distinguish the different forms of domestic violence and how precautions can be taken. Safe Nest welcomes donations and partnerships with local business to continue providing the community with their programs.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, June 15th 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

The community was shaken by the ambush of police last Sunday, which resulted in two officers and a civilian losing their lives. We've learned of a non-profit organization which helps the families left behind. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Jill Bernacki of the Trauma Intervention Program of Southern Nevada to get more details.

The Las Vegas real estate market has been struggling for some time. A new report shows positive activity when it comes to commercial real estate. News in Review correspondent Joe Gillespie spoke with Brian Riffel to learn more.

One of the largest fundraisers of the year to support people living with HIV/AIDS is coming up on June 22nd. It's Golden Rainbow's Ribbon of Life performance, which features Las Vegas Strip entertainers. To find out more about the effect of HIV/AIDS, especially among the African-American community, News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Chelsea Cheatham of the Southern Nevada Health District.

A new report takes a look at the health of our nation's senior population. For details at how Nevadans are doing, News in Review correspondent Joe Gillespie spoke with Rhonda Randell, Chief Medical Officer of United Healthcare's Retiree Solutions

As the U.S. Hispanic population grows, both political parties want that community's votes. While historically, a majority of Latinos have supported Democrats, Republicans are trying to win them over. This week the Republican National Committee announced the hiring of Hispanic field directors in Nevada and other southwestern states. News in Review correspondent Tate South found out more from spokesperson Ali Pardo.

Issue: Legal Aid

Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access

Date: Sunday, June 22nd, 2014

Time: 7:00 am

Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

Lynn Etkins, Associate Executive Director of the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada joined Sandee Bonita Madrid this week. The Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada is a private non-profit organization that focuses on providing free community legal services to those in need and providing free legal aid for Clark County's low income residents. They discussed the various programs that this organization offers such as: consumer's right programs, children's lawyer program, domestic violence program, and the community legal education project and pro bono project. The Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada also discussed the current free legal classes being provided for individuals and encourages many lawyers to volunteer their time to teach. Anyone with trouble understanding anything legal is welcome to visit this organization.

Issue: Local News

Show: Las Vegas News in Review

Date: Sunday, June 22nd, 2014

Time: 7:30 a.m.

Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

This week, a swarm of bees attacked and killed a dog which had been retired from police work. It happened in the far northwest valley at the home of a Metro Officer who has four dogs either in service or retired from police work. Should we be worried about bee attacks, especially when it comes to our pets and our children? News in Review correspondent Melissa Duran spoke to Daniel Millett of Bee Masters of Las Vegas to find out.

After a few stops and starts during planning and construction, Cowabunga Bay is about to open. The water park is in the southeast part of the valley, near the Galleria Mall. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with General Manager Shane Huish to find out what kids and adults can expect.

A mentor can be very valuable to kids, especially those facing adversity. One local group is looking to add a number of adult mentors in order to serve more of our area's youth. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Kyle Dunlap of Big Brother and Big Sisters of Southern Nevada to get details.

During the school year, nearly 58% of all Clark County School District students receive free or reduced priced meals – that's more than 180,000 food-insecure kids. Every summer when school ends, thousands of kids are at risk of going hungry in Southern Nevada. So the Three Square Food Bank and its program partners are offering the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) through August 22. The program is available at no cost for children 18 years of age or younger and is offered at more than 70 sites across the Valley. To find out more, News in Review correspondent Joe Gillespie spoke with Three Square Program Manager Dorian Stonebarger.

Issue: The Arthritis Foundation
Show: 98.5 KLUC's Community Access
Date: Sunday, June 29th, 2014
Time: 7:00 am
Length: 30 minutes of a 30 minute show

The Arthritis Foundation joined John Moug this week. The Arthritis Foundation Nevada is part of the Pacific Region which serves almost 6.7 million adults and nearly 48,000 children with arthritis and related diseases in Arizona, Greater California, Hawaii and Nevada. They have been committed to raising awareness and reducing the impact of arthritis, a serious, painful and unacceptable disease that robs people of living life to its fullest. In support of their mission, they offer education, research grants, advocacy and other vital programs and services to improve the lives of those with arthritis and related disease. Families who have loved ones suffering from Arthritis are welcome to visit the organization and take advantage of the services offered.

Issue: Local News
Show: Las Vegas News in Review
Date: Sunday, June 29th, 2014
Time: 7:30 a.m.
Duration: "30 minutes of a 30 minute program"

State officials say Nevada gambling revenue was up 8 percent in May compared with the same month last year, and up 17 percent on the Las Vegas Strip. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with the director of UNLV's Center for Gaming Research, Dave Schwartz for a closer look at the numbers.

A yearly survey looks at a number of factors involving the health of Nevada children as they prepare to enter kindergarten. News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Tara Phebus, interim director of the Nevada Institute for Children's Research and Policy for a look at their findings.

The Las Vegas real estate market has made great strides toward recovery in the past few months. Home prices have been increasing and sales have been strong. A new report looks at those factors as well as the sale of distressed properties. News in Review correspondents Joe Gillespie and Dayna Roselli spoke with Darren Blomquist of the real estate monitoring firm RealtyTrac to get more information.

As Independence Day approaches, 200 people are getting ready to become United States citizens. A naturalization ceremony is being held tomorrow at Las Vegas city hall. To find out what's involved with legally becoming an American, News in Review correspondent Tate South spoke with Maria Elena Upson from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.

Firework sales began yesterday around the Las Vegas area. The so-called "safe and sane" fireworks sold at these booths are the only type permitted for use and sale in our community, and only from June 28 through July 4 each year. Although the risks associated with this type are reduced, it's still important to follow safety precautions. News in Review correspondents Dayna Roselli and Joe Gillespie spoke with Tim Szymanski of Las Vegas Fire and Rescue to find out what we need to know.